Process or Processing: any operation or set of operations that is performed on Personal Information using automated or non-automated means, such as collecting, recording, organizing, structuring, storing, adapting or altering, retrieving, consulting, using, disclosing by transmitting, disseminating, or otherwise making available, aligning or combining, restricting, erasing, or destroying, provided that it falls under the scope of the GDPR.

Special Categories of Personal Data: Personal Information revealing race, ethnicity, political views, religion, health, sexual orientation, trade union membership, genetic or biometric data, information about criminal convictions and offenses, and other categories defined by law.

3. COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

3.1. What categories of Personal Information does Hyloris collect?

Hyloris collects the following categories of information from you and about you:

- general recruiting/staffing data and any data necessary for verifying your employment eligibility (such as name, date of birth, nationality, immigration status, gender, national identification data, contact information, marital status);
- résumé/CV, education, work history, including references;
- health records that you consent to sharing or that are required by law to be collected;
- information relating to background checks, including data provided by External Parties (and, if applicable, that are allowed by law to be collected);
- information collected during job-application-related tests, assessments, interviews, and screenings by phone;
- your public records; and
- all information you choose to share voluntarily as part of the job application process.

3.2. How does Hyloris collect Personal Information?

Hyloris collects your Personal Information:

- directly from you, and
- from third parties such as from recruitment agencies or other parties for the purpose of conducting a background or employment history check or obtaining an employment reference.

4. PURPOSES OF AND LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

4.1. Purposes and legal basis of the processing of your personal information

4.1.1. Current purposes and legal basis

If you object to Hyloris's processing of your Personal Information, Hyloris will not and must not review your application and will not consider you for any of its future vacancies either.

If Hyloris hires you through its recruitment process and you become an employee, your Personal Information will become part of the Hyloris Employee file and will be used for other employment/work purposes at Hyloris.

Your Personal Information is not used in any automated decision-making, including profiling.

4.1.2. Future purposes

If Hyloris considers processing your Personal Information for other purposes than those mentioned under 4.1.1, Hyloris will inform you thereof before it starts processing your Personal Information for the new purpose.

4.2. How long will your Personal Information be retained?

Your Personal Information will be retained throughout the entire recruitment process conducted by Hyloris and for a maximum of 3 years after the end of the recruitment process.

4.3. To whom will your Personal Information be disclosed?

For the purposes described above (see 4.1), Hyloris may disclose your Personal Information to:

- Hyloris's senior managers, HR managers, HR administration staff, IT administrators, facility management staff, any public service bodies, and other Hyloris entities.

Hyloris requires that any External Parties to whom your Personal Information is disclosed and that processes your Personal Information provide the same level of privacy protection as that which Hyloris provides.

By way of a contract, we require data processors to process the data only in accordance with our instructions and to secure the data. These data processors must not use or disclose the information, except if such use or disclosure is authorized by Hyloris and/or is made for the purpose of complying with legal requirements.

There are certain situations in which you will share Personal Information directly with service providers (e.g., pension providers) that are associated with Hyloris and in which Hyloris has no control over how your data is processed. In these situations, please ensure that you read and understand the privacy policies and practices of such service providers.

4.4. Transfer of Personal Information to a country outside of the European Union

Hyloris operates globally, so your Personal Information can be transferred from time to time to other entities of the Hyloris Pharmaceuticals group, including to its headquarters in United States of America.

If your Personal Information is transferred to entities located in countries whose data protection laws are not regarded as having the same level of protection as the level that the European Union gives to privacy and data protection (including, Japan, the United States of America, and Canada), Hyloris ensures that necessary guarantees with regard to safeguarding privacy and your data protection are offered by entering into contracts with relevant companies whereby those contracts contain the European Commission-approved standard contractual clauses (SCC). You may obtain a copy of these SCC by sending an email to: Koenraad.vanderelst@hyloris.com.

4.5. Security

Hyloris implements appropriate physical, administrative, and technical measures, such as anonymizing, encrypting, and accessing verifications that are designed to protect Applicant Personal Information against accidental, unlawful, or unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, disclosure, access, or use, and all other unlawful forms of processing.

5. YOUR RIGHTS

5.1. What are your rights with regard to Personal Information processing?

You have the right to request access to your Personal Information at any time and request that inaccurate, outdated or no longer necessary information be corrected, erased, or restricted.

You have the right to seek the following within the limits of the applicable data protection regulations:

- the erasure of your data, especially (i) if the data is no longer necessary to be processed or retained for the purpose described in point 4.1.1, (ii) if you have withdrawn your consent to the data processing and the processing is no longer necessary for the performance of the contract, or (iii) if you object to the processing of your data (see below),
- the restriction of the processing of your data (i) for the time necessary for Hyloris to verify the basis of any of your challenge about the accuracy of your data, (ii) if the processing is considered illegal, but you do not want your data to be deleted, (iii) if Hyloris no longer needs your data, but you wish to retain the data for the purposes of determining, exercising, or defending your rights, (iv) if you object to the processing of your data (see below) for the time necessary for Hyloris to verify the basis of your request seeking restriction to the data processing.

You have the right to object to Hyloris's use of your data at any time on condition that your objection is justified on your own grounds, and such justification is within the limits of applicable data protection regulations.

You have the right to receive your data or have your data transmitted to another data controller in a structured, commonly used, and readable format.

5.2. How to exercise your rights

You can exercise the rights described above by sending a letter by email to Koenraad.vanderelst@Hyloris.com, indicating your decision to exercise any of those rights or by sending us the form that is available on the following URL: <https://www.Hyloris.com/gdpr>. After Hyloris has received your letter, it will answer you as soon as possible.

If you are not satisfied with our response to your request with regard to your exercise of those rights, you may file a complaint with the data protection authority in the country where you have your habitual residence, your place of work or where the alleged infringement of your rights occurred. The coordinates of those authorities are described below.
